

Advanced Applied Female Pelvic Anatomy and Surgery

21-22 February 2012, Newcastle

This interactive fresh frozen cadaver training course is ideally structured to meet the training needs of senior trainees ST 5+ and consultants in female urology, urogynaecology and reconstructive urology.

Participants will gain knowledge of urinary incontinence, prolapse and fistula surgery under the instruction of a highly regarded and expert faculty.

Course outline

The programme includes

- Sacral Nerve Stimulation
- Intravesical Botulinum Toxin
- Open colposuspension
- Rectus fascial sling
- Mid urethral tapes - suprapubic and trans obturator
- Abdominal and vaginal fistula repair
- Ileocystoplasty
- Sacrocolpopexy
- Anterior and posterior repair
- Bladder neck artificial urinary sphincter

Who should attend?

ST5-8 and consultants

Fee

£650

Fresh Frozen
cadaveric course

Course Directors

Miss Tamsin Greenwell
University College Hospital, London
Consultant Urological Surgeon

Mrs Suzie Venn
Consultant in Urology
Western Sussex Hospitals Trust

Format

This highly interactive and immersive course will include:

- Cadaveric demonstrations
- Video demonstrations
- Discussions covering tips, pitfalls and pros and cons of the various techniques
- High ratio of faculty to delegates